

The Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law organizes the "CEE Vienna International Tax Law SUMMER SCHOOL" for full time students from the CEE Area at the WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business).

This program comprises a week of intensive work on scientific topics, provided by professors and experienced research associates, covering the practice of double tax treaties and European tax law. The English program addresses to students from Central Eastern European (CEE) countries, which have experience in the national law of their home countries and are interested in practicing tax law after finalizing their studies. The main target group are students who are already well advanced in their studies and close to graduation or who are pursuing PhD studies. The program is limited to about 30 students in order to ensure high quality. Renowned partners from the business community support the program.

Full time students from the Central Eastern European (CEE) area are invited to apply for the program, by April 15, 2010 at the latest. The participation fee amounts to EUR 2000,-, full-time student may apply for a "waiver". A subsidy for travel and/or accommodation expenses may be granted upon request. Participants are asked for a non reimbursable handling charge of EUR 50,-. Please find further details on the application, waiver procedure and recommendations for hotels at www.wu.ac.at/taxlaw.
