

South East European Law Journal [SEE Law Journal] Call for Papers

The South East European Law Journal (SEE Law Journal) is a scientific English language journal of the South East European Law School Network (SEELS). The SEE Law Journal publishes high-quality original, double peer-reviewed scientific articles focusing on relevant questions of regional, European and international integration of SEE countries, issues of legal reform and approximation with the acquis communautaire, best practices in legal reform, unification of the legislation in the region of South East Europe and the EU.

We cordially invite you to submit your contributions for the spring edition of the SEE Law Journal to be published in June 2012 with a financial support by GIZ Open Regional Fund for South East Europe-Legal reform. The SEE Law Journal is open for submission of articles categorised as an original scientific paper or review paper by the academic staff and junior researchers (PhD students) of the SEELS members. Other co-authors of the manuscripts may be from other public funded Law Faculties from Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Macedonia, Montenegro and Serbia. The authorship is restricted to maximum three co-authors per article.

For further instructions please see the General guidelines for authors, available at www.seelawschool.org. Papers should be submitted in English language via e-mail to centre@seelawschool.org. The submission deadline is set for 15th March 2012. Decisions upon acceptance or rejection of papers will be made and author/s will be notified by 1st May 2012.
