

Transforming Post-Industrial Cities Together: Examples of Engaged Research Driving Change

Join us for three days of bite-sized talks where speakers will share concrete insights and examples of engaged research that drive meaningful change in post-industrial cities.

	13:00 - 13:30 CET	13:30 - 14:00 CET
Mon May 04	Sari Hirvonen Kantola, Anna-Miia Suihkonen - University of Oulu "UNIC Centre for City Futures: Impactful city-challenge-driven research"	Gabriel Olegario - RePIC Masters' programme "Learning to Redesign the Post-Industrial City: A Student Perspective from RePIC"
Tue May 05	Rathi Ramji - Malmö University "Equal Health - A Community-based participatory research program"	Seline Westerhof - Erasmus University Rotterdam "A 'Thing' for change? On the messy making of engaged research"
Wed May 06	Iva Rechner Dika, Ines Hrdalo - University of Zagreb "Greening historic urban cores: Contribution of collaborative engaged research"	Evan Boyle - University College Cork "Engaged Research for Climate Action - Rural Lessons for Urban Contexts"